The Bicycle Friendly States ranking is based on a comprehensive survey completed by state departments of transportation and state bicycling advocates. It asks comprehensive questions across 5 categories: Legislation and Enforcement, Policies and Programs, Infrastructure and Funding, Education and Encouragement, Evaluation and Planning. The results listed above provide only a snapshot of the full application. They are intended to offer some ideas for further growth in bicycle friendliness. FEEDBACK

- Adopt a safe passing law with a minimum distance of 3 feet to address bicyclist safety.
- Adopt a vulnerable road user law that increases penalties for a motorist that injures or kills a bicyclist or pedestrian. Model language is available here: http://bikeleague.org/content/model-legislation.
- Provide trainings on Michigan DOT’s updated Chapter 12.12 of the Road Design Manual that provides guidance on the design of bicycle facilities including bicycle lanes, shared lane markings and shared use pathways. Ensure that Michigan DOT staff and local engineers are aware of the update and that the most current designs are used in projects.
- Adopt a law prohibiting a motorist from opening an automobile’s door unless the motorist is able to do so safely. Michigan is one of only 10 states to not have this type of law.
- Adopt a statewide bicycle plan that addresses each of the five “Es”, has clear implementation actions, and performance measures to gauge success.
- Dedicate state funding for bicycle projects and programs, especially those focused on safety and eliminating gaps and increasing access for bicycle networks. Consider ways to incentivize bicycle supportive local policies, like Complete Streets, through competitive grant funding programs.
- Continue to provide specific training to engineers and planners on how to implement the Complete Streets in everyday decisions. Work with local engineers and planners to spread Complete Streets implementation to non-state roads.
- Michigan has a high number of bicyclist fatalities. Ensure that bicycle safety is a major emphasis in all transportation projects, programs and policies to address this issue.
