

Mandatory Use of Separated Facilities

Learn more at bikeleague.org/bikelaws

Type of Facility

State	Mandatory Facility Use Law	Bike Lanes	Bike Paths	Shoulders	Standard for Facility	Exceptions	No Exceptions
Alabama	32-5A-263(c)		X		Usable		X
Alaska	13 AAC 02.400			X	Good condition	X (1)
Arizona
Arkansas
California	21208	X			No standard	X (5)
Colorado	Mandatory Use Law repealed in 2005
Connecticut	14-298-238		X		Only applies to paths adjacent to limited access highways/parkways		X
Delaware
District of Columbia
Florida	316.206(5)	X			Marked	X (4)
Georgia	§ 40-6-294		X (enabling only)		AASHTO standard (citizens may petition for review)		X
Hawaii	§291C-145(c)	X			Usable	X (4)
Idaho
Illinois
Indiana
Iowa	Local mandatory sidepath laws not allowed according to the State Attorney General
Kansas	8-1590(d)		X		Usable(must be dedicated to bikes only, not shared use)
Kentucky		X
Louisiana
Maine
Maryland	§ 21-1205.1	X			Paved to a smooth surface	X (4)
Massachusetts
Michigan
Minnesota
Mississippi
Missouri
Montana
Nebraska	60-6,317(3); 60-6,142		X		Usable		X (but may alternatively use shoulder)
Nevada
New Hampshire
New Jersey
New Mexico	Mandatory use law repealed in 1997
New York	§ 1234(a)	X			Usable		X
North Carolina
North Dakota
Ohio
Oklahoma	The general mandatory sidepath law was repealed in 2006, but there is a mandatory sidepath rule that applies only in state parks. [OAR 725:30-26-13(6)]
Oregon	814.420	X	X		Suitable for safe use at reasonable speeds. Quality must be determined by public hearing before mandate applies.	X (4)
Pennsylvania	Mandatory use law repealed in 1998
Rhode Island
South Carolina	56-5-3425	X			No standard	X (2)
South Dakota
Tennessee
Texas
Utah	41-6a-1105(4)		X (enabling only)		Usable		X
Vermont	Mandatory use law repealed in 2004
Virginia
Washington
West Virginia
Wisconsin
Wyoming	Mandatory use law repealed in 2007						